About Ahmadiyya Muslim Community

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community is a religious organization, international in its scope, with members in over 190 countries. This is the most dynamic denomination of Islam in modern history, with worldwide membership exceeding hundred of millions.

The Ahmadiyya Community was established in 1889 by Hadhrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (1835-1908) in a small and remote village, Qadian, India.

He claimed to be the Reformer of the latter days, the Awaited One of the world community of religions (the Mahdi and the Messiah).

The Community is an embodiment of the benevolent message of Islam - peace, universal brotherhood, and submission to the Will of God - in its pristine purity.

It firmly believes in and acts upon the Qur`anic teaching:
"There is no compulsion in religion." (2:257)
It strongly rejects violence and terrorism in any form and for any reason.

The Ahmadiyya Community encourages interfaith dialogue, shares commonalities and promotes information among followers of different faiths.

It has been holding hundreds of Interfaith Symposia and Conferences across Canada every year. To find out more about these events, please visit www.islamevents.ca.

The Community firmly believes and always promotes its famous slogan:
'Love for All Hatred for None'
