JUDAISM

Rabbi Arnold Fine is a Community Chaplain with Jewish Family Services. Prior to this, he has been an executive director at the Associated Synagogues of Massachusetts, a rabbi at Agudath Israel Congregation and interim rabbi at Beth Shalom Congregation. He was a rabbi and principal at Tree of Life Congregation from 1966 to 1968.

Mr. Fine received his Bachelor of Arts degree with Honours from Clark University in 1960 and his Masters degree in Hebrew Literature from Jewish Theological Seminary in 1964.

Mr. Fine is affiliated with several communities including Rabbinical Assembly, Ontario Region of the Rabbinical Assembly, and Chair of Pastoral Care committees.

ISLAM

Mr. Ataul Wahid LaHaye became a member of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community in March of 1984 after studying various religious doctrines for 8 years. He sat on the National Executive of the Ahmadiyya Community Canada for 7 years and has lectured on various religious subjects in Canada, Britain and the United States.

He has been producing documentaries on behalf of the Ahmadiyya Community for several years. A few of his documentaries include:

1. "Qadian" (the home of the founder of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community),
2. "Jesus in India"
3. "A Sign for North America"
4. "A Heavenly Sign".

CHRISTIANITY

Dr. Richard Ganz was born and raised in a Jewish home. He graduated from the City University of New York with a degree in Psychology. He then earned his Doctorate in Clinical Psychology at Wayne State University. Following his conversion to Jesus Christ, Dr. Ganz went on to receive his theological training at Westminster Theological Seminary, where he received his Master of Divinity degree.

Dr. Ganz has lectured at major secular universities and Christian Seminaries around the world. He is the Senior Pastor of the Ottawa Reformed Presbyterian Church and the President of Ottawa Theological Hall. He and his wife Nancy, the author of the "Herein is Love" Old Testament commentary series for children have four daughters and live on a farm in the Ottawa valley.

MODERATOR

Emma Anderson is Assistant Professor of Canadian Religious History in the Department of Classics and Religious Studies at the University of Ottawa. She did her graduate work at Harvard University, receiving her doctorate in religion in 2005. Her first book, entitled The Betrayal of Faith: The Tragic Journey of a Colonial Native Convert explores the experiences of a seventeenth century Innu boy taken to France by Catholic Recollet missionaries.
